

Cancellation Policy

1. Up to two weeks prior to the event, 50% of the game fee can be claimed (less any bank/PayPal fee incurred).
2. Less than two weeks prior to the event, the game fee is non-refundable.
3. If the megagame is canceled due to :
 - a. The fault of the venue owners – MM will refund as much as we can after recovering the hall fee and taking account of out of pocket expenses.
 - b. Circumstances outside our control such as freak weather conditions, riot, acts of terrorism, invasion by bug-eyed Martians etc – no refund will be due though we would try to refund something if we can.
4. If something serious happens to the game designer/game materials at the last minute (such as a house fire destroying all the game maps and counters the night before the game), MM will try to run the game if possible. If a last minute cancellation is unavoidable we will reimburse players as much as possible after the hall hire and direct expenses have been met.
