

Cancellation Policy

1. The booking fee is non-refundable.
2. If a paid up player cannot come and lets us know before the early payment deadline, then they can claim 50% of their fee.
3. After the early payment deadline no refunds are available.
4. If the megagame is canceled due to :
 - a. The fault of the venue owners – MM will refund as much as we can after recovering the hall fee and taking account of out of pocket expenses (such as printing costs and postage).
 - b. Circumstances outside our control such as freak weather conditions, riot, acts of terrorism, invasion by bug-eyed Martians etc – no refund will be due to players, though we would try to refund something if we can.
5. If something serious happens to the game designer/game materials at the last minute (such as a house fire destroying all the game maps and counters the night before the game). MM will try to run the game if possible. If a last minute cancellation is unavoidable we will reimburse players as much as possible after the hall hire and direct expenses have been met.

Megagame Makers 2009